

SOLY MELAMED M.D.

150 N. Robertson Blvd. Suite #205, Beverly Hills CA 90211
Ph- 310-657-8585 Fax- 310-657-8484

Experience: General Medical Practice
Adult and adolescent psychology.

Selected physician for Interstate Teleconference regarding different medical problems.

Professor on faculty at University of Tehran.

1964-1966 Fellowship at Purpan Hospital (France)

1966 to present: Private Practice

Education: 1953-1960 All Medical education in Paris, medical graduation thesis presided by Emeritus Professor Marcel Lelong.

1960-1964 Residency in various medical departments with Professor Lelong.

1980-1981 Internship at Wadsworth VA and UCLA Medical Centers.

Certification: 1979-1980 Medical State Board of California

1981 Medical License of California.

1984 ACLS (Advanced Cardiac Life Support) Adult and Children.

Societies and

Organizations: Designated Physician by INS (Immigration Naturalization Services)
Honorary member of National Medical Association of France
Member of American-Iranian friendship society since 1988.
Member of the Board of Directors of Glendale College of Business and Paramedical 1986-1994.
Designated Physician INS (Immigration Naturalization Services)

Publications and Research:

Books:

- Emergencies in the medical office.

Articles published in various medical journals:

- Cervical and Lumbosacral pain related to car accident-diagnosis and treatment.
- Generalities of Genetics.
- Psychiatric problems in adolescence and elderly.
- Alzheimer and Dementia Diagnosis and Treatment
- Cat Cry Disease, medical Journal of Faculty of Medicine
- Exchange transfusion
- Generalities of Genetics.
- Generalities of Aids- Aids and Teens.
- Cholesterol and Obesity Diagnosis and Treatment.

Teleconferences in 1966- present

- Enuresis, Headaches, Allergies, Prostate Hypertrophy, Alzheimer's and Dementia, Hypercholesterolemia, Asthma, Hypertension, Urinary Tract Infection.